"Lukewarm Christian?"

Oxymoron: "a two-word phrase containing contradictory elements"

We have all heard or used oxymorons; for example:

- Jumbo Shrimp
- Military Intelligence
- Plastic Glasses
- Congressional Leadership
- Unbiased Opinion
- Numb Feeling
- Good Grief
- Exact Estimate
- Oddly Appropriate
- Metal Woods (for golfers)
- Bitter-Sweet

Jesus uses an oxymoron in Revelation 3 when talking to the church in Laodicea. He says that they are "lukewarm"; neither hot nor cold. He says that He would spit them out of his mouth. Pretty graphic language, but we get the point. Coffee should be hot (no matter what Starbucks says) and Tea should be iced (no matter what the British say). Neither are good at room temperature.

Our Christianity is no "ho-hum" endeavor. In the words of Mark White, we have much to be "fired up about. We have been saved from our sins. We have access through prayer to the Creator of he universe. We have the promise of a home in heaven. We have a spiritual family to love and encourage us. We have the Good News to share with others. Lukewarm? I think not! We should be on fire about our Christianity. Let us not live our lives as oxymorons to God and the world around.

- Tim
