“Remain In Me”

Jesus said, “I am the vine and you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in Him, he will bear much fruit.” Remaining in Jesus is vital to our Christianity. As the branch must stay connected to the vine, so we must remain connect to Jesus. We do this in many ways. An active, vibrant prayer life keeps us connected to God. As we pour out our hearts to Him we become more aware of His presence in our lives and allow His Spirit to guide us. We also stay connected by consistently studying His word. We allow Him to speak to us. We are reminded of the blessings we have in Christ. Another way we stay connected to Jesus in through our worship and fellowship together. Being together at every possible opportunity enables us to help and encourage each other as we grow closer to God and one another.

Remaining in Jesus is not only vital, but productive. Jesus said that if we remain in Him, we will bear much fruit. The fruit we produce is two-fold. First, the fruit of he Spirit will become evident n our lives. Paul says that fruit is, “love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.” The closer we are to Christ, the more these qualities blossom in our lives. But there is another fruit as well. As Christians we should produce other Christians. As we witness to others through our attitudes, speech, service to others and our love for everyone, they will be drawn to Christ as well and we will have the opportunity to share the message of Christ with them.

Jesus also spoke of a harsh reality in regards to our fruit bearing. He said that those branches that bear no fruit will be cut of and thrown into the fire. God has expectations for us. He expects to see growth and fruit produced. Paul said that, “We are God’s workmanship, created in Christ to do good works.” When we do not allow God to produce fruit in our lives by remaining in Jesus, we are not fulfilling our purpose. Christians produce fruit.

- Tim

PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Emma Martin is in Good Shepherd Hospital with a blood clot. Guan Blackerby will undergo testing on Friday. Please continue prayers for Carla Barnes. Please add David Ingram to your prayers.
