Impact by simply inviting

It is amazing to see how Lydia after being baptized along with others of her household was already ready to receive the brethren in her house. It says that she persuaded them to stay. This shows a heart for hospitality already and it proved real and set the tone for the congregation that would form in Philippi. We can already tell that when Paul and Silas left prison the first place they went was to the house of Lydia. Why? She was a believer in Christ, she received them well, and Paul and Silas wanted to encourage them before they left for Thessalonica. This time proved to be a blessing to Paul and his ministry by Lydia opening her house for them. In fact, when Paul writes in Philippians 1:1-3 3 "I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now" The first day was in Acts 16 when Lydia and her household were baptized and received Paul and his companions into her home and were blessed. When you open your home for God's Word to be taught, and brothers and sisters to be encouraged, be assured that time together is a blessing. God bless your Family Life Groups this Sunday and may blessings come from your time together that will impact others for the rest of their life. Also, use this opportunity to simply invite a friend who needs to know the love of God and the good news of Jesus Christ. Make memories together. Keep fired up, in Christ, Mark

FRIENDS IN THE BIBLE

Ruth and Naomi

Ruth's late husband was Naomi's son. While they were connected by a marriage relationship, they were also dear friends. Ruth insisted on returning with Naomi to her home country of Israel. Though Ruth had lost her husband to death, she did not want to lose her friend. They returned to Israel together grieving deeply for their mutual loss.

They were faithful to one another. One of Naomi's relatives fell in love with Ruth. Their marriage brought peace and joy to the two ladies.

Read more about the friendship of Ruth and Naomi in the Book of Ruth.*
