MAKING A DIFFERENCE

One definition of the word difference is to significantly change or affect a situation. Christians are called to make a positive difference in this world. Jesus teaches us to let our light so shine before others that they may see our good works and praise our heavenly Father (Matthew 5:16).

The difference that we make will be made in the lives of people. Sometimes that difference will appear small and perhaps insignificant to us and others. Sometimes the results of our efforts to make a change may not come until later. But good seed planted will germinate and produce.

The Apostle Paul said that “as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers” (Galatians 6:10). Opportunity may not come knocking at the door as we sometimes suggest. The truth is we have to look for and listen for opportunities to do good and make a difference in the lives of people.

If we are going to make a difference, we must learn not to be self-absorbed. Wrapped up in ourselves we do make very small packages. Jesus saw himself as a servant. He said that he “did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many” (Matthew 20:28). Service and sacrifice go together. Jesus served and sacrificed. The Bible says that he came to “do away with sin by the sacrifice of himself” (Hebrews 9:26).

We have all been changed by people who influenced us for good. They reached out beyond themselves to us. They made some sacrifice of time, energy and effort. This is clearly what as Christians we are called to do.

We do need to be keenly sensitive to the need and opportunity to make a difference.
