SINAI: God Introduces Himself

From the beginning God had communicated with His creation through individuals. Adam and Eve, Noah, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And then, seemingly nothing. For the 450 years that Israel was in Egypt, there is no record of God speaking to His people. Then God sends Moses to deliver the Hebrews from Egypt and bring them to Mt. Sinai. They will stay at Sinai for about a year.

It is here that God will reintroduce Himself to His people. It is here that God will claim Israel as His holy nation. It is here that God will give them the Law. It is here that they will build the tabernacle and the ark of the covenant. It is here that God will install a priesthood, complete with special garments and ceremonies. It is here that they would learn about offering specific sacrifices.

And it is here that God comes to His people on the mountain. But it is an ominous scene. Complete with strict instructions that no one, man or animal, is to touch the mountain on fear of death. As God descends to the mountain, there is a dense cloud of smoke and fire and thunder and lightning and a loud trumpet and the whole mountain shook violently. And God speaks to the people, giving them the Ten Commandments. And what is the results? The people are terrified and trembled and begged Moses to speak to them instead of God. What is the purpose of all this? I believe that it is God's way of showing the distance between Him and man that was created because of sin. That although God wanted a close relationship with His people, it could not be intimate because of sin. But He had a plan.

Through the perfect sacrifice of Jesus, the Lamb of God, we, as Christians have an intimate, personal relationship with God. It is through Jesus Christ our great high priest, that we can, "boldly" and "with confidence" approach God's throne. Boldly and with confidence. What a stark contrast to the fear and trembling of the Israelites.

God calls us to meet Him on the mountain. To claim us as His people and to have a relationship with Him.

This Sunday's lesson will come from Exodus 3-4. See you Sunday on the mountain!

- Tim

“Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God’s grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the very words of God. If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.”
