Growth Qualities

Colossians 1:3-6 “We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, 4 because we have heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love you have for all God’s people— 5 the faith and love that spring from the hope stored up for you in heaven and about which you have already heard in the true message of the gospel 6 that has come to you.”

1 Thessalonians 1:2-3 “We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers. We remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.”

It is interesting that in both Colossians and Thessalonians Paul writes early on about three of the same characteristics of both churches. They are faith, love, and hope.

The first quality is faith in Christ. A living, active faith, motivated to do good works. James indeed said that if we have faith we should show it by the works we do.

The second quality is love. We are called to love God and our neighbor. We love because He first loved us according to 1 John 4. As Thessalonians says our labor is prompted by love. There should never be an ulterior motive for our actions other than simply being motivated by God’s love

The third quality is hope. Our hope is in Christ. Hope stored up for us in heaven, and the hope that calls us to endure and persevere. In other words, why continue following Christ? Because of the hope of heaven and eternal life. That is why Paul calls us to press on to that goal.

Why talk about faith, love, and hope? When we, as individuals and as a church family, make it our goal to grow in our faith, love, and hope it will produce fruit to the glory of God. Paul said that the church in Colossae was bearing much fruit; in fact, the church in Thessalonica because of these three qualities said that the message rang out to all the world.

Let us grow in these qualities. Why? 1 Corinthians 13:13 “And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.”

-Mark
