Number 20

"We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters,[a] about the troubles we experienced in the province of Asia. We were under great pressure, far beyond our ability to endure, so that we despaired of life itself. Indeed, we felt we had received the sentence of death. But this happened that we might not rely on ourselves but on God, who raises the dead." 2 Cor:1:8-9

Have you ever felt overwhelmed? Have you despaired of even life itself because of the circumstances around you? Paul and his companions felt those exact same feelings. What can we do with the situations in life that come our way? Paul felt at first how we would probably feel in despair, overwhelmed, and concerned about how to make it through this moment. Paul realized that all those moments in his life where he felt those emotions were really teaching him to trust in God. Isn't that what Jesus wants for us? To trust in Him. Jesus would tell his disciples "I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world." (John 16:33). May we take heart and trust in God when feelings of being overwhelmed, despair, and great pressure come our way. Take heart today and continue living the life of Christ and the promise of eternal life. Pray for one another. Keep fired up in the Lord, Mark.
