We know that many have been affected by the recent storms in many ways and our hearts go out to each and everyone. Our prayer is that the Lord be with you to strengthen and comfort during these hard times. Perhaps you are thinking "How am I going to get through this", "When will things get better?". Perhaps having anxiety and worry, and in moments like these our emotions can take a toll on us. The words that I can find from Jesus to help us with all these emotions since all we really can do is take it day by day. Tomorrow, we don't know, but today we are living through it. Jesus would say "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own." (Mt. 6:34) So, as we are going through things daily in our lives lets give them to the Lord and remember His promise. "But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." (Mt. 6:33). Praying you can make it through today. In Christ, Mark.

LOVE & SYMPATHY

Our love & sympathy is offered to the family of Emma Martin. She passed from this life on Saturday afternoon after a long, brave battle with cancer. She was truly a Christian lady and loved everyone fiercely. In turn everyone loved her. She had been a member here for many years and will be missed greatly. Services will be held here, at the building, today, June 22, at 11:00, with visitation one hour prior. Please pray for her husband M.L. and all of her family.
