“Faith Proclaimed All Over the World”

Paul, in speaking to the church in Rome said, “First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being proclaimed all over the world.” (Romans 1:8). And to the church in Thessalonica he said, “For not only did the message of the Lord ring out from you to Macedonia and Achaia, but your faith has gone out to every place, so that we have no need to say anything further.” (1 Thessalonians 1:8). Paul was letting these two congregations know that brothers and sisters all over the world had heard about their faith and were encouraged by them.

We are a small body of God’s people in a small community in east Texas, yet our faith is known around the world and is an encouragement to brothers and sisters in very far away places. Your faith is known in Ghana and Kenya and India and Zimbabwe and Uganda and Tanzania and Brazil. These are just the works that we are currently involved in on a regular basis. We also help on short term missions around the world.

While we were in the airport in Sao Paulo, we ran into a professor of missions from Harding University. He knew of Daingerfield and the work that we have been doing in Brazil. He knew about our support of Maikon and Tati Borba at Harding. He knew of David Ingram and Mark and Ju. I thought that was pretty amazing.

And I can assure you that the brothers and sisters in southern Brazil know of your faith and love and encouragement. They are so appreciative of the support we gave Mark and Ju while they were in Brazil. They are appreciative of the time we spend there every two years. They love and appreciate all of you, even though they have not met most of you.

Our theme for the week in Brazil was, “Juntos” (Together). Isn’t it wonderful the love and affection we share together from all over the world? Different languages and different cultures, yet all one in Christ.

Thank you, this church family in Daingerfield, for being so committed to sharing the Gospel to every nation. And may our faith continue to be proclaimed all over the world.

- Tim

Giving for change makes cents!

Raising money
To support CTCH!

Supporting children at the Central Texas Children's Home (CTCH) just "makes cents." Since 1969, CTCH has been helping displaced children by giving them a home, necessities and teaching them of God's love. The children are then given a chance to experience change in their lives. Wont you help us? It just makes cents!
