Trying to understand God's will?

Proverbs 16:9 says "The heart of man plans his way, but the LORD establishes his steps." There is nothing wrong for making plans for the future, but we must be attuned to where the Lord is leading us in our daily life. His plan is the best. In fact, the book of James says in regards to our planning "Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." James 4:15. Whatever is going in your life right now it is great to have plans, and we must submit those plans to the Lord and ask for His will to be done above all.

But what are we to do in the meantime? Wait, do nothing, just go through life looking for a sign? How can we know if we are open to His plan. The book of Romans gives a bit of information to help us in our daily walk and how we can know we are striving for God's will in our lives and that we can perceive to understand His good, pleasing, perfect will. Romans 12:1-2 tell us "Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. 2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will." Paul had just finished talking about how great God is at the end of chapter 11 in praise to Him for bringing about salvation for both Jew and Gentile through faith in Christ. He now points to there daily lives and the first thing he says is be a living sacrifice. This means every day I wake up the day is in your hands Lord, help me to live like Christ. The second point is that we are not to be conformed to this world but to be transformed by renewing our minds. Keeping our minds on things above. (Col. 3, Phil 3) Now knowing we begin to understand that we must be healthy in mind, spirit, body, and soul. (3 John 1:3). Then this great promise for a third point that then we can test and approve what God's will is. The only we can do that is if we are living our daily lives for Christ. The question is do we scramble around anxious, nervous, trying to understand God's will or do we have the faith to simply live for the Lord, making our plans, but always following in His steps and not our own, knowing that He is working His plan in our lives? Keep fired up, Mark.

PRAYING FOR OUR SICK

Please pray for Cassie McGee, daughter of our Kevin Shuffield. She is undergoing breast cancer treatments at this time. She lives in Louisiana. Cyndi Allen, sister-in-law of our Joe & Kathy Terrell, remains under hospice care. Please remember her and her family in your prayers. Please remember Cathy Killian, mother of our Eric Winchester, as she will begin radiation treatments. We have several members with Covid and some who have improved and back at services.
