“There is a Time for Everything”

“There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven: a time to be born and a time to die.”

Ecclesiastes 3:1-2

We know this, but it has been made evident to us again this week. None of us could have predicted the sudden passing of our sister Juanita Henegar. She was a very important part of our church family and active in so many different areas. She will be greatly missed. However, we rejoice that she did not suffer and we rejoice that because of the faithfulness of God our Father, she has gone to claim the crown of righteousness the apostle Paul longed for.

I don't know how many times over the last 24 hours I heard someone say something like, "Life is so unpredictable". But what Solomon reminds us is that in reality life is very predictable. No, we may not know the when, where or even how we will die, but we can be certain we will. The writer of Hebrews reminds us, "It is appointed unto man once to die and after that comes the judgment." James reminds us that our life, "is but a vapor that is here for a time and then vanishes away."

The fleetingness of life and the certainty of death should remind us all of the importance of making the most of every opportunity. Opportunities to serve. Opportunities to love. Opportunities to encourage. Opportunities to comfort. Opportunities to share the Gospel. Time is short and opportunities can be squandered.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Juanita's physical family. She loved them and they loved her. But we also pray for ourselves as her church family, because likewise, she loved us and we loved her.

-Tim
