"To Be Honored By All"

Long ago the writer of Hebrews said, "Marriage should be honored by all". In recent decades, our society has seen a decline in the honor and importance placed on marriage and the family. To many, the traditional/Biblical concept of marriage is out of date and archaic. However, we must remember that marriage was never man's idea or man's design. Marriage is a relationship born of God Himself at the beginning of time. Toward the end of the creation God saw that, "It is not good for the man to be alone". So God created, from man, a woman to be his companion and said of this newly created relationship, "For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife and they will become one flesh".

Almighty God Himself created marriage as his deepest, most intense of all human relationships. It is within marriage that two people become one in mind, spirit and body. No other human relationship fulfills these needs as marriage does. We can have close acquaintances, deep friendships and a strong love for other family members. However, none of these provide the social, emotional and physical intimacy as does the marriage relationship. God also created marriage as the only relationship in which our physical desires are to be met. God created us sexual beings, male and female. He gave us the gift of physical intimacy and ordained marriage as the proper use of that gift. Again, the writer of Hebrews said, "Marriage should be honored by all and the marriage bed kept pure". The purity of the marriage bed considered here is both before and after marriage. Procreation is another purpose for which God created marriage. While physical intimacy is a gift to the marriage relationship, it is also the means by which the human race is perpetuated. God told Adam and Eve, to "be fruitful and multiply". The concept of husband and wife becoming father and mother and raising children is God's ordained and sanctified plan.

As we begin our study of God's plan for the family, it is vital that we begin by being reminded that marriage and family is truly God's idea. And as God's idea, He has a plan that has been revealed through scripture for how the family should function. May God bless each of our families with the wisdom found in God's word.
