SEEING GOD'S GLORY

"In the morning you will see the glory of the Lord" (Exodus 16:7). The people were complaining to Moses about being hungry. They even argued that they had been brought out into the desert to starve. The Lord said to Moses, "I will rain down bread from heaven for you" (Exodus 16:4). It was in connection with the Lord's raining bread down out of heaven, that Moses said, "You will see the glory of the Lord".

Bread coming right down out of heaven certainly ought to have been a powerful testimony to the love and goodness of the Lord. Surely in all of this the people would see clearly the glory of God.

Looking back, this is all very clear to us. Those people back there certainly ought to have been aware of God's goodness to them. They should have been ashamed to ever have complained.

But what about the blessings of God here and now in our lives? All around us there are the wonders of God. His goodness is everywhere. David said, "If I rise on the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, even there your hand will guide me, your right hand will hold me fast" (Psalm 139:9-10).

Every good gift is from above (James 1:17). The goodness in all of our lives is beyond measure. We must be sure that we keep our hearts and eyes open too. We must not miss it-the glory of God is everywhere. We must see it and be grateful.
