“O God, You Are My God”

“O God, You are my God, earnestly I seek You; my soul thirsts for You, my body longs for You, in a dry and weary land where there is no water.”

Psalm 63:1

Things were not going well for David. His family life was a wreck. His son, Amnon, had raped his daughter Tamar and another son, Absalom, had killed Amnon. (Did you get all that?) Because of that, Absalom had been exiled from Jerusalem. While away, Absalom amassed an army and plotted to overthrow David as king. In fact, he marched on Jerusalem and sent David fleeing into the desert of Judah. David was hiding in caves, cut off from everything and everyone. He was physically, emotionally and spiritually in a “dry and weary land”.

That is the life experience for most, if not all, of us. There will be times when we find ourselves in a dry and weary land. It may be health related. It may be family related. It may be job related. It may be financially related. It may be spiritual related. Times when we are drained, confused, frustrated, weary. Times when we are seemingly left with little or no resources to see us through. What do we do? Where do we go? Where is our strength and hope.

David knew. He understood. Our strength and hope is always in God. Notice what David says, “O God, You are my God.” It is easy to worship and praise God when things are going well. Hymns are easy to sing. Prayers are easy to pray. Being around other Christians is a delight and joy. But in the times of darkness and distress, it is even more important to seek God. To have an unquenching thirst and unsatisfied hunger for God. “I have seen you in the sanctuary and beheld Your power and glory” (63:2). In his darkest hour, David remembers all that God has done and has promised to do. The same is true for us. We must trust in God’s goodness and faithfulness.

David makes another piercing statement when he says, “Because Your love is better than life, my lips will glorify You” (63:3). In other words, no matter what happens to us, God’s love is better and stronger. What more do we need to see us through this “dry and weary land”?

TNFTM

We were blessed this past TNFTM with the opportunity to fellowship and pray for many that have been our prayer list while together. The fellowship was a blessing and we truly thank each soul that makes a difference for TNFTM. From the meal preparation team, the serve and clean up crew, those volunteering to write the cards, make the phone calls, and those who visit to encourage. We were blessed with thirty one souls who participated this past week in TNFTM. Fifty-two cards written, 10 phone calls made, and 7 visits made or attempted thanks to the thirty one who attended this past week. TNFTM only has a few more sessions before the break for the summer. It's not to late to participate. Please fill out a yellow card and we will see you there next Tuesday Lord willing. Use the opportunity while TNFTM still exists. God bless, Keep fired up, Mark.
