"Let Freedom Ring"

Omar Bradley, a famous general during World War II, said, "No word was ever spoken that has held greater hope, demanded greater sacrifice, needed more to be nurtured, blessed more the giver or come closer to being God's Will on earth." Men will die for it ... countries will be torn apart for it ...some can only dream of it. That word, of course, is "Freedom". The founding fathers used these words to close the Declaration of Independence: "We, therefore, the representatives of the United States of America, in General Congress, ...do solemnly publish and declare, that these united colonies are, and of right ought to be free and independent states." We, as Americans, are proud of our freedom and rightly so. However, there is a freedom even greater than that which we enjoy here in this country.

While physical and political freedom may only be a dream for some, the freedom we have in Christ is universal. Jesus said in John 8:32, "You shall know the truth and the truth shall set you free." Paul tells us in Galatians 5:1, "It is for freedom that Christ set us free. Stand firm then, and do not let yourselves be burdened again by the yoke of slavery." Isn't it amazing that so many in our world today view Christianity as a burden and hindrance to their freedom? However, when we truly understand how our faith and hope in Jesus Christ set us free, we begin to feel a freedom that cannot be matched by a document, a country or a constitution.

Christianity sets us free from sin and its consequences. Romans 8:1-2 states, "There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus, because through Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit of life set me free from the law of sin and death." In Christ, we are set free from worry. We are free from the values and outward measure of success by which this world judges us. The love of Christ frees us from hate and prejudices.

As we recently celebrated our freedom as Americans, let us never forget the incredible price that was paid and the responsibility we owe for the spiritual freedom we have in Christ.

- Tim

PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Please continue your prayers for Greg Gant. He did have 3 bypasses last Friday at Regional Hospital and is home.
