"Longing to be Together"

Sunday felt so good! After 8 long weeks of not physically meeting together as a church family, we had the blessing of doing so again. Even though there were only 88 present (I know many of you were tuned in to the livestream) it just felt natural. I have longed to be with each of you. I have yearned for the fellowship and encouragement we receive from each other. It reminded me of how Paul felt about the church in Philippi when he said, "I thank my God ever time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy ... It is right for me to feel this way about all of you, since I have you in my heart." (Philippians 1:3,4,7)

This time has awakened within me a renewed sense of longing for that time when we will all be together again ... for eternity! During our livestream it was so good to see past members who have moved away tuning in (I was going to name names, but didn't want to risk leaving anyone out!). As Christians, we should all be longing for that day. Not in a morbid, death-seeking way, but with a real sense of anticipation. Longing for that day when we will be reunited with all those from our past and present in that place Jesus told His disciples He had gone to prepare. That place free from all the hardships of this world. That place where together, we will spend eternity in the presence and praise of our God. Yes, let's long together for that day!
