Lessons on Family

Continue This Sunday

Our lessons on "Family God's Way" continue this Sunday. We have seen how family is God's creation and is to be honored as He designed it. We then discussed that marriage must be a commitment to both God and our spouse. It must be based on "agape", unconditional and sacrificial love. And that it must be forever. This week we will continue our study as we explore, "Preparing for Marriage." What we learn will be important whether you are already married or not. May God bless us as we continue to study together.
