"Keeping Our Children Safe"

There are dangers all around that threaten our children. And as parents, we do our very best to keep them safe. But of all the dangers out there, the most deadly is Satan. Peter tells us that he is like the roaring lion, seeking someone to devour. Think about that word, "devour". He doesn't discriminate based on age, gender, wealth or religious convictions. He is after anyone and everyone. In fact, the weaker, younger, the more vulnerable the better. That includes our children. That especially includes our children! So what are we to do as parents to keep our children safe from this preeminent predator?

Sunday, I offered three ways to keep our children safe. First, we must make sure that they are taught that the standard for their lives (and ours) is God's Word. Our society tells them that there are really no standards. The world says that everyone is free to make their own decisions and choices about morals and values. Yet, we know, that God has given us a standard. A standard that we, as parents, should teach to our children. We should teach them not only that God's Word is the standard, but how to use God's Word in their lives.

Secondly, parents need to make sure that their children are involved in every possible activity that the church has to offer. It is so important that our children are around other Christians so that they can be encouraged and influenced for the good. Bible classes (Sunday and Wednesday), worship, devotionals, camps, VBS, etc. are all opportunities for our children to be exposed to positive influences.

Thirdly, and maybe most importantly, we must be examples to our children. There is no greater factor in a child's faithfulness to God than the example of their parents. You matter! You make a difference! So, what kind of example are we leaving?

May God bless all parents as we strive to keep our children spiritually safe.
