"That You May Believe"

"You Are Here". How many times have you seen that phrase next to an arrow on a map? I can remember seeing that phrase on maps at Six Flags many years ago. You then had to find where you wanted to go and try to plot your route to the next ride (those were the days when I still enjoyed Six Flags!). Each of us is on a journey of faith: a journey to lead from perhaps humble beginnings to an eternity with God. Your journey may have begun years ago. Your journey may have begun recently. Your journey may have stalled or even been abandoned. But nonetheless it is your journey. The apostle John wrote to those who were on the same journey. Some had just started, some were confused, some were confident. He begins his Gospel with an end in mind. At the conclusion he writes, "But these were written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in His name." (John 20:31)

Sunday we begin a journey of faith through John's gospel. We will meet people like us. People in different stages of their journey. Religious people, outcast people, people mired in sin, people struggling. Again, people like us. It is a journey that will speak to each of us, if we let it.

"You Are Here". On the map of your faith journey, where are you? And how do we get from there to, "life in His name". May God bless us as we take our journey with John.

Tim

There are no words to describe the love & joy that she expressed. She was one of a kind and loved everyone she met. She loved the Lord and lived for him. Joyce was preceded in death by her husband Greg. Please pray for her children Jennifer Powell and Jeff Gant and grandchildren Kyleigh, Aubreigh, Krew & Mia. A memorial service will be held at a later date.
