"Do Not Let Your Hearts Be Troubled"

The disciples had to be confused. It was in the upper room. Jesus had washed their feet, established the memorial supper and told them that He was leaving. He had tried to prepare them all along, but they never truly grasped the concept that He had come to earth to die. In the midst of their confusion and fears, Jesus speaks these words to them, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God, trust also in Me. In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with Me, that you may also be where I am." (John 14:1-3)

What amazing words of comfort and encouragement. If you haven't noticed, there is much in this life to cause our hearts to be troubled. As a church family we have sat in many hospital rooms and attended many funerals and offered many prayers for those we love and care about. We have all had our hearts troubled by individual struggles and tragedies. Combine these with all that is going on around us in our world, our society our community and our families, it seems there is nothing to soothe our troubled hearts. But Jesus' words ring as true to us today as it did so long ago for the disciples, "Do not let your hearts be troubled".

Our hearts are not troubled because we know that this place is not the end. This place is flawed by sin and its consequences. It is flawed by the destructive power of Satan. There are times when this place simply stinks! But we have confidence in Jesus' words. We take hope in the fact that He has gone to prepare a place for us. A place where there is no more sorrow, no more pain, no more death and no more tears. A place prepared by God Himself where His saints will live forever, rest from their labors and have nothing to trouble our hearts. Praise God!

Praise God, that even while we are surrounded by so many heart troubling issues, we can take comfort and hope in the thought of that place prepared by God.

- Tim
