"You are always welcome"

"The Simple Life"

Last week, Brittney came over with the girls after school. As Paige and I were playing on the floor I asked her how school was that day. Her response: "Good ... I didn't bite anybody and I didn't tee tee in my pants!". That made me chuckle a little. I thought, what a simplistic view of life. With all that is going on in the world, with all the turmoil, hatred, natural disasters, a good day consisted of simply not biting anyone and keeping your pants dry.

We are not there yet in our study of the Sermon on the Mount, but Jesus, gives a similar simple view of life. He says, "So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets." This statement by Jesus was at the close of the sermon. Unlike today it wasn't going straight to YouTube or Instagram. There was not a collector's DVD set available for a special low price. Perhaps Jesus was concerned that many of His listeners would forget some of the specifics of the sermon as they went home. Or maybe He wanted to simplify the many Laws found in Exodus-Deuteronomy. Whatever His reasoning, He gave a "Cliff's Notes" version. Basically, He said, if you can't remember it all, or if you are unsure about something, simply ask yourself, "Is this the way I would want to be treated?"

Jesus was actually not the first to make a statement like this. Rabbi Hillel, who lived about 100 years before Jesus was on earth is quoted as saying, "That which is hateful to you, do not do to your fellow. That is the Torah; the rest is the explanation; go and learn." But notice the difference. Hillel's statement was a passive one. "Don't do". Jesus' is active. "Do do".

In this age of confusion over what's right and wrong; what we should or should not say or do, Jesus makes it simple. Treat others like you want to be treated. If, at the end of the day, we can say we did this, then it was a good day. (oh, and don't tee tee in your pants!).

PRAYING FOR THE SICK

Robert Veale did require 3 stents after suffering two heart attacks last week. He is home and doing well. Emma Martin's cancer markers have gone up. Please pray for them to go down. Cynthia Gibbs had stents put in two aneurisms in her brain on Monday. Continue prayers for her improvement and for her neck brace to be removed on Friday. Greg Gant continues to recuperate at home from a diabetic wound. He did see a wound specialist this week and they come to his home twice a week. Gwen Barton, niece of our Bill McClain and cousin of our Joyce Gant, has been diagnosed with breast cancer. Please pray for her. Gary Pollan, whom we have been praying, is now home after spending 90 days in Baylor Hospital and a nursing facility. He has been undergoing treatments for cancer. Please keep Tommy Huchingson, the son of Vonnie Ross, in your prayers. Please pray for the following: Faye Alford, Bobbie Akers, Thelma Awtry, Loyd Banks, Mike Banks, Nelda Banks, Carla Barnes, Frank & Jo Barrett, Bettye Brantley, Shyne Bright, Billy Carlson, Jean Cook, Desiree Corbello, Colby Cox, Maggie Cox, Sue Cox, James Dailey, Jill Fender, Becky Fountain, Dee Frankford, Terry Fuller, Faye Galloway, Kenia Gibbs, Cynthia Gibbs, Scarlett Gibbs, Betty Grainger, Norman Harrell, Sandra Harring, Angie Helms, Laura Hill, Patti Holt, Tommy Huchingson, David Ingram, David Ingram, Jr., Corrine Jacobsen, Barbie Kirkland, Setsuka Lee, T.C. Love, Emma Martin, Mary Moss, Diann Mueller, Will Parks, Will Pendergrass, Gary Pollan, Colleen Prah, Lloyd Puckett, Shontele Purdy, Wanda Purdy, Jeffery Sweet, Jeremy Sweet, Julia Sweet, Royce Sweet, Vonnie Ross, Maren Turner, Kathy Upton, David Waldon, Bobbie Walker, Mark White & Melba Williams.

PRAYING FOR THE ROSEWELL

FAMILY

Jerry Rosewell has developed a serious infection where they placed a prosthetic in his left shoulder. They are going to have to do surgery on October 1 to remove the prosthetic and place an antibiotic patch in. He will then have 8 weeks of IV antibiotics. Once the infection is cleared, he will need surgery again to re-implant the prosthetic. Jerry's father, Jerry Sr., is no longer taking chemo for his cancer and is deteriorating rapidly. Please keep this family in your prayers.

Thank You

There is a card posted on the bulletin board in the foyer from Eric & Bonnie Mullins. It's in regards to Bonnie's father, Grady Porter. Please take a minute to read this card.

ELDERS TO MEET

Our elders are meeting tonight (Thursday), 6:30, in the conference room. Talk to one of the elders or church office if you would like to meet with them tonight.

OPPORTUNITIES

"Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord, 20 always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ." Eph. 5:15-20
"Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. 6 Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone." Col. 4:5-6

Let us meditate on these verses and ask ourselves the question "Am I choosing to make the most of the opportunities that God has given me for my family, church family, and those around me?" Mark

A 10 year old little girl was asked by another classmate, "what is it like to be a Christian?". The girl replied, "it's like being a pumpkin. God picks you from the patch, brings you in, and washes all the dirt off of you. Then he cuts open the top and scoops out all of the yucky stuff. He removes the seeds of doubt, hate, greed, etc., and then He carves you a new smiling face and puts His light inside of you to shine for all the world to see."

YOUTH

See you Sunday morning at 9:30 and Wednesday evening at 6:30. Bring a friend!

"Train up a child in the way he should go, and [or even] when he is old he will not depart from it" (Proverbs 22:6).
