“The Big Rock”

A little boy was spending his Saturday playing in the sandbox. He had his trucks and cars, his shovel and pail.

IN the process of making his roads and highways and tunnels in the soft sand, he discovered a large rock in the middle of the sandbox. He dug around the rock, managing to loosen it from the dirt. With a great deal of work he was able to push and move the rock with his feet to the edge of the sandbox. (He was a very small boy and this was a very big rock.) However, when he got the rock to the edge of the sandbox, he could not roll it up and over the lip of he box.

Determined, he shoved and pushed and pried. But every time he thought he had made some progress, the rock tipped and fell back into the box. The little boy grunted, struggled, pushed and shoved some more—but his only reward was to have the rock roll back and smash his fingers. Finally, in total frustration, the boy burst into tears.

All this time, the boy’s father had been watching from the living room window, As the boy’s tears fell, a large shadow moved across the sandbox. It was the boy’s father. Gently, the father asked the boy, “Why didn’t you use all your strength?”

Defeated and offended, the boy boldly responded, “I did! I did use all my strength!”

“No son,” corrected his father kindly. “You didn’t use all the strength you had. You didn’t ask me.”

With that, the father reached down, picked up the rock and tossed it from the sandbox.

Too often we try and remove all the “rocks” from our lives by ourselves, never making use of the strength we have available from our Father.

*“God is our refuge and strength, an ever-present help in trouble”
Psalm 46:1*
