"Safe and Sound"

Many of you know that our family experienced a traumatic event this week. Abby, my grand-dog, got scared and ran away Saturday. She's a tiny thing and also has a broken leg that is in a cast. That makes her extremely vulnerable to the elements and predators. Sunday and Monday search parties were sent out, Facebook messages were posted, and I even tried to play Timmy and Lassie. I talked to my other grand-dog and tried to get him to find Abby and take me to her. Surprisingly, he just stared at me like I was crazy (no comment!).

It all seemed hopeless until Tuesday the vet called to say that a lady had found a dog with a cast on. Turns out it was Abby and she had found her shivering in the road Saturday night. The vet's office was closed Monday, so Tuesday was her first chance to call. Kenia went and picked her up and it was a joyful reunion as each member of the family came home and greeted her.

I knew I was going to use this event somehow as a lesson, but there were so many ways to go. So here is where I landed. We have all been like Abby. Lost, scared, vulnerable and helpless, spiritually speaking. We were dead in our sins with no way of helping ourselves. And just as that woman had pity on Abby and picked her up and cared for her, Jesus found us and rescued us from the dangers that lurk. And just like that woman returned her to her home, Jesus tells us that He is coming again to take us home too.

-Tim
